The Rector writes:

It is a great privilege to be asked to conduct a marriage service and share in the preparations for the service on the 'big day'! Every service is special and hopefully memorable for the couple as they commit themselves to one another in the promises and vows they make.

If you have heard Banns of Marriage called recently, you might have wondered about the meaning of the words 'and having a qualifying connection with this parish. In 2008, the Church of England made it easier for people with a connection to a particular parish to be married there, even though they were not resident in the parish or on the church electoral roll. The new qualifying connections are that the bride or groom:

- was baptised in the parish
 - was confirmed in the parish
 - has at some time resided in the parish for at least 6 months
 - has attended public C of E worship in the parish for at least 6 months
- Further qualifying connections are if a parent of the bride or groom
- was married by a C of E service in the parish
 - has resided in the parish for at least 6 months during the lifetime of the bride or groom
 - has attended public C of E worship in the parish for at least 6 months during the lifetime of the bride or groom.

It is a joy that couples wish to make their commitment to one another in church and to seek God's blessing. If they no longer live in the parish, but can still be married here using a qualifying connection is all to the good. Incidentally, it is wonderful to hear people speak fondly of a particular church and why they wish to be married there. I am pleased that the Marriage Measure makes it easier to offer a welcome to those who wish to be married in the parishes of our Benefice. Whether it is banns or bells that remind you of weddings taking place, please pray for the couples married here. Thank you.

Francesca Elloway

It was a great pleasure to have Dr Francesca Elloway to talk to us early in July. Francesca works as a medical missionary for CMS (Church Missionary Society) in the Congo. She runs a number of clinics, maternity services and has just begun a centre for palliative care. Francesca's parents used to live in Crockerton, and so we have had good contact with her over a number of years. The PCC makes a grant to her each year and it is reassuring to have a safe system of making payments to support her work. This year we have given a generous donation for Francesca to use in the way she thinks best which is to buy some books for nursing training and use the remainder for the new palliative care centre. She keeps in touch through regular newsletters, copies of which are usually placed in the

We are Macmillan Cancer Support

Macmillan Cancer Support in Wiltshire is gearing up for 2011's World's Biggest Coffee Morning, which this year celebrates its 21st birthday. Every year, thousands of people from across the country get together in their communities to raise money and awareness for Macmillan while having a great time with family and friends. Since its launch in 1990, the World's Biggest Coffee Morning has raised over £60 million for Macmillan. Last year, 570 people registered to hold their own coffee mornings in Wiltshire and our generous supporters raised £82,000 in this county alone, making a huge difference to the lives of people affected by cancer. Each day, ten people in Wiltshire are diagnosed with cancer, and Macmillan works to turn more days into good days. 2011 also marks another special occasion for Macmillan - our centenary. One hundred years ago, Douglas Macmillan founded the charity and since then, Macmillan has been providing medical, financial and emotional support to people living with cancer and their loved ones. Although caffeine-based events are the most popular, yours doesn't have to be about coffee – why not organise a craft fair and sell handmade goods to your community? Or celebrate our centenary in style with a champagne-filled garden party? To find out more and for ideas for your own event, please visit www.macmillan.org.uk/coffee to register. Alternatively, you can contact Macmillan's local office on 01793 432252.

Wiltshire Council

New Plastic bottle and cardboard recycling service

As you may have seen in the Coming Soon leaflet that dropped through your door in July, Wiltshire Council is introducing a new plastic bottle and cardboard recycling collection service across the county from the autumn. In the West, the new plastic bottle and cardboard recycling collection service will start at the beginning of November 2011, with new blue-lidded bins being delivered to households throughout October. Residents will receive an instructional leaflet and collection calendar information through the post shortly before the bins are delivered, explaining how to use the service and when to put the blue lidded bin out for collection. Slightly different arrangements have been made for residents who live in flats, and an assessment will be carried out on each individual block of flats to determine exact bin requirements. This is explained in more detail in the information being delivered through the post before the bins arrive. Meanwhile, for further information please visit the council's website www.wiltshire.gov.uk/waste or phone us on 0300 456 0102.

Ron Macduff retires

After 42 years Ron our local milkman has retired. He has been such an asset to the community keeping an eye on the elderly and vulnerable in the villages. Always with a cheery word and smile for everyone and so helpful to his customers. He has delivered the milk in all weathers and without complaint, the last two winters have been particularly challenging! He will be greatly missed and I am sure all his customers wish him a very long and very happy retirement. Paul Meadows takes over Ron's round so we wish him good luck and hope to get to know him soon.

Ancient Barrows

Having been on two archaeology related walks recently I reached for the 'The Deverill Valley' or locally known the 'Green book', and was intrigued to discover there are three long barrows within walking distance of where I live in Kingston Deverill. One near the summit of Cold Kitchen Hill, one on Pertwood Down, and a small one on the lower slopes of Cold Kitchen Hill. On Middle Hill, south of Kingston Deverill, is a disk barrow. When this barrow was opened a Faience necklace of over forty amber, jet and faience beads separated by bone spacer plates was found. This is a very rare object, only two other complete necklaces of this type have been found in this country. The amber beads are identical to amber beads found in necklaces in shaft graves at Mycenae in Greece, the palace of King Agamemnon who led the Greeks in the Trojan War as told by Homer in the Iliad. It is possible that these necklaces were made centrally in Europe and exported to Britain and Greece, showing that extensive trade routes had been established all over the known world.

The Wiltshire Core Strategy Consultation Document

This builds on the 'Wiltshire 2026 - Planning for Wiltshire's Future' consultation, which was undertaken in 2009/2010, and previous consultation exercises undertaken by the former district councils of Kennet, North Wiltshire, Salisbury and West Wiltshire. Since then, the government has introduced the Localism Bill, which proposes changes to the planning system, including the introduction of neighbourhood plans and the abolition of Regional Spatial Strategies, which identified levels of housing and job growth for areas such as Wiltshire.

As such, this consultation exercise provides the opportunity for you to have your say on new proposals for the level and location of new employment land to provide for job growth and new homes across Wiltshire. In addition, the consultation document sets out draft policies to ensure the sustainable delivery of new development within Wiltshire. These aim to maximise the benefits of development for local communities whilst at the same time conserving and enhancing Wiltshire's high quality environment.

The Core Strategy will be based on robust evidence about the challenges facing Wiltshire and the best and most realistic ways of meeting those challenges. This evidence has been gathered from a wide variety of sources, including commissioned studies. The views and aspirations of local communities are an important part of this evidence, these views have been collected through ongoing dialogue and structured consultation exercises, such as the Wiltshire 2026 consultation. The current consultation provides a further opportunity for the local community and other stakeholders to help shape the Wiltshire Core Strategy. Evidence base documents to support the emerging Wiltshire Core Strategy can be viewed on the website www.wiltshire.gov.uk/planningpolicyevidencebase

A series of draft topic papers have been produced, collating evidence comprehensively. These will continue to be developed following the consultation, taking into account the response and will be finalised to support the publication of the draft Core Strategy. The draft topic papers include consideration of reasonable alternatives to the proposals presented in the consultation document, and give clear justification as to why these alternatives have not been pursued. The draft Topic Papers can be viewed at Wiltshire Council www.wiltshire.gov.uk/wcsconsult2011. The consultation period runs until Monday 8th August.

The Wiltshire Core Strategy aims to deliver sustainable development. A Sustainability Appraisal is being undertaken throughout the preparation of the Core Strategy. This Appraisal entails evaluating all potential options against a range of sustainability criteria, and scoring them in relation to how sustainable they are. A Habitat Regulations Assessment has been undertaken as required by European legislation regarding the integrity of internationally important wildlife sites to be protected. Both have helped shape this consultation document. The

Outreach Post Office

You may well already know that the Post Office is considering moving the outreach Post Office at Longbridge Deverill Garage to Lakeside Garden Centre in the foreseeable future. An undated letter to this effect is available in the garage which states any comments, queries etc. should be forwarded to Neil Jenkins, Field Change Adviser, Post Office Limited, c/o National Consultation Team, PO Box 2060, Watford, WD18 8ZW by 9th August 2011, please submit them before the deadline.

Junior Golf

With the school holidays upon us, it is time for children to get out and about, and sample the delights of sun and fresh air, away from their computer games. Parents! Why not steer them to the nearest golf club, where a whole new sporting adventure awaits? Many of Wiltshire Golf Clubs are now GolfMark accredited – meaning they are Junior friendly and have rigorous child protection policies in place. Most offer a mixture of free, subsidised and group coaching conducted by experienced PGA Professionals – and a Junior Organiser arranges regular events through the holidays. Many boys & girls now receive basic golf coaching at school. The Summer Holiday period is the perfect time to put that work into practice – and in an environment in which they will make quality lifetime friends while getting much needed fresh air and exercise. For the more competitive, most clubs also arrange their Junior Open during this holiday – when many boys & girls from around the county converge on a single club for a golfing bonanza. The following selection may be useful:

- Wednesday 3rd August – Broome Manor, Monday 8th August – West Wilts,
- Wednesday 17th August – Chippenham, Thursday 18th August – Manor House,
- Friday 19th August – Kingsdown, Saturday 20th August – The Wiltshire,
- Thursday 25th August – Bowood, Thursday 27th October – North Wilts.

The price for most of these is £5 – 10, including food. The EGU Golf Central website will guide you to much more information on these, as well as Entry Forms. Also, if you are away on holiday in England, the EGU Golf Central website will help you discover what is going on near your holiday destination. With luck, you may find you have a budding Rory McIlroy on your hands. You will also be helping to keep Wiltshire at the top of the English golf tree. You might also like to try the game yourself – golf is a great family game offering real quality time together, and one of the few that you can enjoy as a player when age or injury rule out other sports. Further help on any of these matters is available from Wiltshire Golf Partnership's Development Officer, Joe Goulding, on 07789 813268 and 01249 248983 and at wiltscdo@live.co.uk

Lunch in the Barn at Kingston Deverill

The lunch was a huge success, with well over a hundred friends and neighbours joining together for this happy event. The food was delicious and the Barn looked very attractive with all the tables beautifully laid and decorated. At the end of the meal the Deverill Chamber Choir entertained everyone with delightful singing. The profit raised from this wonderful occasion was over £1,500 which will help to ensure the fabric maintenance of our valley churches. Thank you so much to the team who worked so hard to make this event possible and thank you to everyone who enthusiastically attended and supported it.

Wiltshire Age UK

The Big Knitting in Schools and Communities

Please knit some little hats for Age UK's Big Knit. They send the hats to the Innocent drinks company, who put them on the top of their Innocent smoothie bottles in November. For each be-hatted smoothie sold, Age UK receives 25p. Last year Age UK Wiltshire collected in over 21,000 hats and raised over £6,000 to help make winter warmer for older people in Wiltshire.

Age UK Wiltshire would greatly appreciate the support of Wiltshire's school pupils to help them knit lots of hats. They are aiming to knit 22,000 hats this year! The hats are simple to knit and could be a great way pupils could learn to knit. The final deadline for this project is 7th October 2011, so many pupils may like to knit hats through out the summer holidays. It does not have to be just school pupils taking part, mature knitters are very welcome to make a contribution too!

Further details about the project, and to download patterns etc. please refer to www.ageukwiltshire.org.uk or ring Emily on 01380 710411. Happy knitting!

Nature Notes

For me summer wouldn't be summer without the sight and sound of swifts; sickle winged high pitched screaming silhouettes that whiz through the sky above cities and towns. I have just been re-reading an article about them and it made a very important point that 'no other bird in Britain is so dependent on Man for its breeding sites as the Swift'. They nest high up in the roof space and are particularly attracted to old houses and churches where they can gain access more readily. So often when a roof is repaired swifts lose their nest site, a site that they will have used all their lives coming back to the same hole year after year. I read in the Warminster Journal that St. Lawrence Church is trying to attract swifts to breed in the tower; I do hope they are successful. I know that there were breeding swifts in North Row 2004/2005, as when I worked in town I saw swifts sweeping up under the eaves and disappearing at the corner of one of the cottages; sadly this cottage has since been renovated with new roof and weather boarding and the swifts literally locked out! But they must be breeding somewhere very successfully in town as I have seen very good numbers, two dozen or so putting on a tremendous display in the Lower Marsh Road area. We have some here in the village and I know there were some breeding at Monkton Deverill when I delivered the papers, back in the 90's. We have recently been to Dilton Marsh, Horningsham and Dunster and each time seen good populations of swifts. They are only here for a few months arriving on average at the beginning of May and leaving by the end of August. They lay a clutch of 2-3 eggs, which hatch after about 3 weeks, and in a good year the young develop quickly and can be ready to fly at about 6 weeks old. So during July and early August you often see parties of screaming young swifts flying fast and furious over the rooftops; wonderful to watch.

Our swallows and house martins are doing very well. I don't know exactly how many nests have fledged now but we certainly have very good numbers of both flying about. They attract predators, namely sparrowhawk and hobby. The sparrowhawk has been making frequent sorties through the garden and you know when it is about; the swallows and house martins start flying about fast and furious in all directions calling and generally making a confusing pattern for the hawk. They will even mob it and chase it away; safety in numbers. The blackbirds give out a high pitched alarm call and the garden empties of birds. Then the garden becomes unnaturally quiet. The sparrowhawk has taken quite a few young starlings and blackbirds and this morning I found evidence of dove/pigeon taken (a plucking site strewn with light coloured feathers). The tree sparrows are doing well, the Scots pine pair are raising their 3rd brood, and there is another tree sparrow family in the apple tree box.

We have found several road casualties recently. The first a female pheasant, then a handsome male hare at the entrance to our driveway and finally a beautiful grey partridge along the road between us and the Shearwater turning. The partridge plumage was absolutely spectacular, putting the imported red partridge to shame! All these casualties I've placed out on the open grass near the vegetable plot and they have been gratefully received.....the birds plucked clean (corvid or buzzard I

Recipe - Sausages and Barbeque Beans

Ingredients

- 6 good beef or pork sausages
- 4 teaspoons vegetable/rape/olive oil
- 1 medium onion chopped
- ½ green pepper chopped
- 2 medium apples, peeled, cored and chopped
- 1 400g tin of baked beans
- 60g sultanas
- 2 teaspoons curry powder mild
- 4 teaspoons brown sugar
- 1 tablespoon tomato puree
- 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
- 1 teaspoon French mustard

Method

Grill sausages on a rack under a moderate heat, until cooked and golden brown all over. Cut each sausage into 2 or 3 pieces, set aside and keep hot. Pour oil into a large non-stick pan and gently sauté onion, pepper and apples for 2 to 3 minutes. Add baked beans and remaining ingredients and cook over a moderate heat until mixture is piping hot. Add sausages to the mixture and heat thoroughly. Season to taste with freshly ground sea salt and black pepper. Serve with creamy mashed potatoes. A quick and easy supper dish. Serves 3-4 depending on your appetite.

Fairtrade - Easy Bean

Christina Baskerville is Managing Director of Easy Bean. She is a farmer's daughter so a love of the land is in her blood. She has worked on tropical agriculture projects in Africa and Latin America. During her time in Zambia, Sudan, Belize and Bolivia she began to appreciate beans and the role they play in so many different cuisines. She was excited by the enormous variety and regional differences, and their ability to fertilise the soil by putting nitrogen back as they grew. On returning to the UK she was determined to help put beans at the heart of UK cooking and decided to set up her own company. She started working from her kitchen table but now runs the business from converted farm premises in Somerset.

The company is thrilled to have Fairtrade status for their African Palava - Fairtrade brown beans, free range chicken, peanuts, sweet potatoes and spinach - and New Mexican Chilli - Fairtrade red beans with sweet peppers, tomatoes and jalapeno chilli. Having worked so closely with the farmers in Africa and Latin America Christina knows how hard they work and how vital it is that producers receive a fair deal so they can support their families.

Easy Bean is currently celebrating getting two Fairtrade products into Sainsbury's and building up sales of the full range in Waitrose and independent shops. They continue to scour the world in search of fabulous beans! Sainsbury's
