Dear All

The season of Remembrance is only just coming to an end and, already, Advent, the season of waiting and prayerful preparation for Christmas, appears to be passing us by! Christmas has already begun on the high streets and in the shopping centres. Television advertisements are keen to encourage us to begin our shopping in earnest and have you noticed that carols too, are in full swing as you push your trolley around the supermarket to remind you that Christmas is not far off?

I don't mean to sound like Mr Scrooge - I love the build up to Christmas as much as anyone - but I fear we have become less used to having to wait and wonder why, when Christmas Day does finally arrive, we feel so exhausted and wish we had a few more days to prepare! Throughout December we do have an opportunity to prepare ourselves both spiritually and mentally for the wonderful event which we celebrate on the 25th December each year. Advent is the time of quiet and prayerful reflection on the real meaning of Christmas, the significance of the birth of a baby, born over 2,000 yrs ago, who grew up to change the course of history throughout the world.

So STOP and find time for Advent this year and give yourselves a break.

STOP and Open up the Advent calendar with your children, and, when they have got over the excitement of eating the 'Divine' chocolate, tell them the real story of Christmas. The Lion Story Teller Bible is a good place to start.

STOP and light a candle each evening and place it in the window to remind yourselves and others who pass by that we are waiting for Christ who is, 'the light of the world'.

STOP and read a chapter of your bible each day - you will find Advent readings on-line or in your local church.

STOP and say a prayer each day, for the people who continue to live in places where there is injustice and poverty. Remember the refugees and those who are homeless because of wars and natural disasters.

STOP and take time for yourselves to draw closer to God and after the four weeks you will know just why you are celebrating Christmas this year.

May I wish you all a very happy and Blessed Christmas and good wishes for 2014. Di Britten (Associate Priest)

Nature Notes

Earlier this week we had the first frost of the season. It certainly increased the number of birds coming to the peanuts and fat balls that I had put out. But there is so much food in the fields and hedgerows that now the temperature has increased, little bird numbers have gone back down. On that frosty morning we had 2 fieldfares investigating the apples in the garden but they were being chased off by the resident blackbirds. Back on the 19th October we had an influx of mistle thrushes (at least 6, but it could have been as many as 10; difficult to count) together with 3 redwings and a starling, all busy feeding on the lawn, bathing in and drinking from the pond. The pond continues to attract wildlife; most days wagtails come. During the summer grey wagtails predominated but now we are getting more pied ones. On sunny days that heat up the roof tiles they scurry about, calling and probing for insects from the tiles. They seem to fly between the house roof and the pond where dancing on the water-lilies stirs up other insect life. Amazingly we noted an emperor dragonfly flying out by the pond on 27th October which I thought was quite late in the year.

I reckoned to have seen my last butterfly of the year but yesterday, whilst working in the greenhouse, I was joined by a lovely red admiral. This butterfly overwinters as an adult as do the small tortoiseshell, peacock, comma and brimstone. Maybe this red admiral energized by the warmth of the sun had come into the greenhouse looking for a site in which to hibernate. It flew back out again into the afternoon sunshine possibly looking to feed, ivy flowers are a very important source of food at this time of the year for all insects. When moving pots around in the greenhouse I found another insect hibernating; a rather large beetle which I wondered might have been a female stag beetle. Fearing it might get squashed in amongst the pots, I carefully moved it to another out-house still in a pot filled with dry leaves. Hopefully it will survive the winter.

On the 22nd October we heard a fox calling from very close by fairly early in the evening; I usually associate their call with the dead of night. We have also had tawny owls calling on still nights, such a lovely sound, I think they are probably using the big cherry tree in the garden from which to call. Both these sounds I connect with winter, together with the pheasants squawking at dusk as they go to roost. So far it has been fairly mild but I hear that temperatures are about to tumble. At least there is plenty of food in nature's larder. Last winter birds and animals succumbed due to the lack of food and from the enduring cold. Talking earlier this week to Major Nigel Lewis, who works with the Hawk & Owl Trust, last winter was a disaster for owls and kestrels; many died and those that survived were not well enough to breed this year. They will need all the assistance we can give them to redress this, putting up nesting boxes is one way to help.

An Old Agriculturist's Ramblings - Part 4

In my last contribution I had forgotten to mention some events that occurred such as in the winter of 1951. The A350 was completely blocked by snowfalls, despite the Highways Authority erecting chestnut paling fences about 10-15 yards in the fields on the east side of the road to encourage the snow to drift in the field, unfortunately it was not too successful! The road remained blocked for three weeks, I don't recall how one coped but we survived despite the fact that I was a single man! My future wife used to visit me most weekends to restock my larder, arriving Saturday afternoon, spending the night at her brother's farmhouse at Horningsham (no chance of co-habiting in those days!) and then return to me Sunday morning to cook me lunch, then back to her house at Chisledon near Swindon. The road was finally cleared by the School of Infantry at Warminster with their heavy equipment, hence the reason for gates being erected to close the road in Longbridge.

Another event was at harvest time. With cereals stored in sacks, there was no bulk handling in those days. Some would be taken to Warminster station and loaded into covered wagons holding twelve tons in each. Lifting 2 ¼ cwt sacks of wheat up into the wagons and stacking them 3 high was very hard, hot work, which usually compelled us to stop at the local on the way back to the farm to collect the next consignment! The remainder was despatched by road transport, loading the lorries was much easier. With the amount of straw grown on the 1000 acres, barns were filled up for house consumption, some sold to dairy farms locally collected by them and some sent by rail to the West Country. None of this was loaded at Warminster station for some reason. I do not know why, but it was always taken to Heytesbury on to open wagons loaded by us and then secured and sheeted down by railway staff.

The cereal acreage was being increased. One down that had a number of banks or lynchets, as they were called, was levelled by bulldozers brought in by contractors, then ploughed by us and cropped. Another down we reclaimed by ourselves that was covered with gorse bushes and thorn trees, we endeavoured to do this with the equipment we already had. We attached a buck rake to a little grey Fergie pulled backwards with a Caterpillar D2. The driver of the Fergie only had to steer it but unfortunately once one of the buckrake tines penetrated the ground, bent round into a V shape and trapped the Fergie driver's foot under the foot rest. It went through the sole of his boot into his foot. Luckily I happened to be there to see how the work was progressing and managed to get the attention of the D2 driver to stop. We released his foot with difficulty and I took him to Warminster hospital. Fortunately no bones were broken, just severe bruising, it needed dressing and bandaging. He needed a few weeks off work, but soon back, he was a tough old boy! A further down called Big Down situated below Peewits Castle of 150 acres was never to be ploughed up by Colonel Jack Houghton-Brown's orders as it was

Wessex Cancer Trust Harvest Supper

A wonderful evening was had by all on the 19th October in Upper Deverills hall .We enjoyed a full house, tickets were snapped up after the success of last years' supper. Dinner was cooked by Hillary Dix and once again she did us proud. Sue Terry, Bridget, John, Rod and Chris and a cast of thousands helped with the preparation, organising the hall, raffle tickets and auction. Thanks to you all. Local businesses were extremely generous donating prizes. Cilla's generous donation of one of her pigs for auction raised a superb sum of money.

It gave great pleasure to see past farm workers from the Kingston return to give their support, including Rex and Sue Dix. Sue was a local girl, her mum Betty still lives in Kingston Deverill. The Ford family also joined in the fun. Carol was a nanny for the Strattons and Kevin was the shepherd, Lucy and Annie were born in Kingston. Annie brought her daughter for her first visit to the village. It was an absolute joy to see so many folk laughing heartily and having a thoroughly good evening. A special thank you to Al, our shepherd, who's bidding on some most unusual items caused much merriment and hysterical laughter .

I would like to thank all who attended and spent so generously, in excess of £1,400 was raised, a record amount raised from the Deverills. Wessex Cancer Trust were there to help Chris and Lou Hillier in their moment of need, for which they will always be grateful. Wessex Cancer Trust was established in 1981 to provide relief for adults, teenagers and children living with cancer and for their carers. It also aims to promote research into the disease and to advance education into its causes, prevention and treatment. The Trust currently provides free counselling and complementary therapy services, promotes awareness and publishes a series of leaflets covering early warning signs, treatment and advice for patients. Each year many individuals receive financial grants to alleviate hardship resulting from the impact of cancer on patients and their families.

May there be many more evenings spent with friends enjoying fun and food in the Deverills at future events whilst raising funds for good causes.

Longbridge Deverill Village Hall

Another highly successful quiz night raised £200 towards double glazing for the hall. Seven teams, consisting of 43 people, took part in a hotly contested competition. The quizmaster 'Chris Tarrant', also known as Guy Ratcliffe, prepared six rounds of questions on a range of subjects including, what proved to be a difficult picture round, the anatomy of frogs! To avoid brain cell melt down, at half time an excellent fish and chip supper was provided by the Star Fish Bar. After a closely fought battle, mediation over the correct title of the 1st Duke of Cornwall, the winning team where all presented with their prizes of daffodil bulbs! Thank you to all who supported this event helping to raise funds for our hall, we hope a good time was enjoyed by all.

Broadband in the Upper Deverills - Funding application

Thank you to all who responded to the Survey distributed to residents of Kingston and Monkton Deverill at the beginning of November. At the time of preparing this note the Broadband Action Group are beginning an analysis of the results. We are also urgently exploring where we might find the private funds that we need to complement the EU grant that we are trying to win. Anyone who can suggest organisations that we might approach please let us know as soon as possible because we have to get our proposals in by 31st December.

Poppy Appeal 2013

The Deverills and Crockerton contributed £1,861.40 to the Royal British Legion this year, a really good sum collected from our locality, reflecting the generosity of our inhabitants and visitors to our two pubs, petrol station and garden centre. The breakdown was: Kingston £272.60, Monkton £81.25, Brixton £194.18, Hill £110.87, Longbridge £235.32 and Crockerton £291.12. The church collection on Remembrance Sunday was £305 and the 4 tins in static points totalled £306.06. The UDPC this year gave £65.

The Royal British Legion is hugely grateful to all who contributed and I thank the thirteen house to house callers responsible for collecting £1184.94 of the overall sum. My thanks to Nigel and Shouanna Hawkins and Robert Steptoe for

Update on Corfe Mullen to Salisbury Pipeline

Wessex Water (WW) held a briefing session at Kingston Deverill Village Hall on 22nd October giving information on the forthcoming construction of the Monkton Deverill Pumping Station, Summerslade Down Reservoir Tank and associated pipelines. This article highlights key points from the briefing and also potential impacts the construction will have on the community.

Construction is scheduled to start in December, with site preparation at the Monkton Deverill Pumping Station, Summerslade Down Reservoir and Keysley Farm. Access to the Monkton Deverill Pumping Station site will be via the B3095, approaching from Mere. Construction traffic associated with the Summerslade Down Reservoir site will be via the A350, and for the Keysley Farm site from the A303. Therefore, the impact of construction traffic on the B3095 should be reduced, no construction traffic should be travelling through the middle of Monkton Deverill. The primary WW Construction Office will be based at Summerslade Down, largest of the 3 construction sites, plus an office at Monkton Deverill Pumping Station.

There will be 3 associated pipelines linked to the local construction, which will all start from the Monkton Deverill Pumping Station. One will run up to Summerslade Down Reservoir (and beyond towards Codford), the other towards Keysley Farm, roughly following the existing road/track. The third pipeline will connect the Summerslade pipeline to an existing pipeline on the south west edge of Monkton Deverill, close to the B3095 at Monkton Green.

WW is re-visiting the requirement for a passing bay on the road leading to the Monkton Deverill Pumping Station. If it is determined there is still a requirement, WW stated its construction will not impact on the hedge on the east side of the road.

A number of roads will be affected during the construction. The Hindon Road will be closed for up to 4 weeks from the 3rd – 28th February while the pipeline to Summerslade Down is laid under it. It is likely the road will be closed for a shorter period but 4 weeks is being used for planning purposes. The B3095 will have traffic light controls in the area of Monkton Green from 3rd - 21st March, while the Summerslade Down pipeline is connected to an existing one. The Keysley Farm road leading from Monkton Deverill will be closed between 9th – 24th January (open at weekends), due to tree cutting (removal of branches rather than trees). It is possible that the work may be completed before 24th January.

Noise testing of the Monkton Deverill Pumping Station site will take place during the commissioning phase in order to confirm that the noise levels stated in the original planning application are not exceeded.

Construction completion dates for all 3 pipelines are expected to be by June 2014; the Monkton Deverill Pumping Station October 2014; the Summerslade Down Reservoir February 2015. Should residents wish to raise any issues, particularly during the construction phase they are encouraged firstly to contact the Parish

As we settle into autumn and prepare for the busy festive season, we often find we have very little spare time to do the little things. One thing we should always make time for is making sure your home is safe especially in the winter months when we are using our fires and heating more frequently. This brings me onto the serious matter of fire and safety. Wiltshire Fire and Rescue Service are anxious to prevent fires happening and can offer a free check up. They offer advice on safety measures as well as checking that your smoke and carbon monoxide alarms work. You could be eligible if you are: over 65; have under 5's in household; have a long term illness or physical/mental impairment; live in a thatched property, or mobile home; single occupant home. If you are interested in having a check on your home, please call me to arrange one on 07557 922033.

May I wish you all a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Recipe of the month - Iced Berries with White Chocolate Sauce

Sponsored by Maiden Bradley Community Shop

Ingredients:

500 g mixed frozen berries, 150 ml double cream,
150 g white chocolate, chopped, 1 tsp vanilla extract, 2 tbsp white rum

Method:

Put the frozen berries into the fridge 1 hour before serving to soften but are still icy. To make the sauce, put the cream, chocolate and vanilla into a small saucepan and heat gently, stirring continuously until the chocolate has melted. Leave to cool for 2 minutes, then stir in the rum. Divide the berries between 6 shallow bowls and pour over the hot sauce. Serve immediately before the fruits completely defrost. This a simple, light but delicious dessert. Resist it if you can!

All ingredients available or can be ordered from Maiden Bradley Village shop.
