The Rector writes:

A New Year! A New Decade! What will it hold I wonder?

There may be hopes already in your minds, or plans for celebrating special times, or arrangements for holidays underway. It is interesting to note that although we may have ideas about what the year will contain, we can never be sure what will happen. Our expectations may be thwarted. Things may unfold differently from all that we anticipate.

For some places in the world, the year will be significant. As our Diocese is linked with the Province of the Sudan, we have a special interest in the results of the referendum to be held there this month. Please pray for a peaceful outcome. Our diocese will have a new bishop. Also, there will be important decisions taken at General Synod relevant to the future shape of the world-wide Anglican Church. There will be a royal wedding, and plans for the Olympic Games in 2012 will continue. Financial constraints will force changes in many areas of our lives, not least in local services. Many people will have to face the threat of redundancy or relocation. In the light of uncertainty, it is important to look for the things which give stability to us and to the communities in which we live. Friendships and neighbourliness will be more important than ever, especially for people with no local support networks.

During the exceptionally cold weather, I have enjoyed being able to light a fire. If a log rolls away from the heart of the flames, then it loses its brightness, and eventually stops burning and grows cold. To remain useful, the fire must continue to burn. The glow returns when what has fallen away comes back to the heart of the fire again. We can accomplish more together than alone.

I hope that during 2011 there will be an ever-present glow in all parts of our community, so that together we see where God is already at work, and join in!

A Happy, Healthy and Peaceful New Year to you all.

Norma Payne

Nine Deverill Decades

It was a pleasure to welcome so many visitors to the Nine Deverill Decades exhibition celebrating 90 years of the WI in the Deverills. I have received a letter of thanks from the Wiltshire Air Ambulance Appeal for the sum of £227.04 that was put into their collection during the two days of the exhibition. Thank you to all who sent in items for the displays, some of them have been accepted by the Wiltshire and Swindon History Centre for preservation. Copies of the Longbridge Deverill Parish Memories book were on sale. The income from their sale is destined for the benefit of the local community, most recently, a new cooker for the Village Hall. To buy further copies, please ring 840419 or 840209.

Save the Children

A very successful Christmas Bazaar was held at Mill Farm House, Hill Deverill on the 13th November and raised a fantastic £1,652.00. It was a very happy event with lovely stalls. Thank you to Val Dale and family for their hospitality and to everyone who contributed and supported us.

Deverills Chamber Choir

Thank you to all those who supported the choir at their concert in Longbridge Deverill church in November, we hope you enjoyed it as much as we did! You were very generous with donations, for which we are very grateful. We also received some lovely comments on the overall sound and blend of the choir, the varied repertoire and how much the choir had developed in the year since our last concert. If you would like to join the choir we would be very happy to welcome you on a Friday evening at our rehearsals. The next one will be on Friday 14th January at 7.15 pm at Sue Hunt's house, Frog Lane, Longbridge., If you need further information please contact me. We look forward to seeing you.

Pre-School Children and Parent Thursday Group

The group will meet again at 10.00 am on Thursday 6th January, when we hope to welcome our regular and new families at Longbridge Deverill Village Hall. For further details contact Pat Wood 840535 or Sylvia Titt 214825.

Eyesight Loss Information Desk

It was with great reluctance that the decision was taken to cancel the initial opening of the desk at Warminster Library because of bad weather. However, the intention is that the desk will open for business on Friday 7th January at 10.00 am. For further information please contact Elizabeth Diacon on 846488.

Nature Notes

I try and fit a walk in everyday and it tends to be the same area that I walk; up the farm, by the track or the lane, and often down to Shearwater. Some people might think that to walk the same area so often would be boring but no; every walk is different and by walking the same patch you get to notice what wildlife is normally about and any changes that occur. For instance, 15 to 20 years ago there were not many buzzards about, now I would normally expect to see at least 1 on every walk. Recently I have noticed a sharp increase in ravens; I certainly see and hear more ravens at the moment than I do buzzards. Also recently lapwings have come in to feed on the fields particularly where the sheep are grazing, at first there were only about 8; the other day I reckon there were nearer 30.

When I am out walking I try and keep my eyes and ears open; often I will hear something and that will lead me on to actually spotting it, this is certainly true of birds. Over the years I have picked up some of the bird calls but I am always learning more. Recently I was up in the woods above Shearwater, there were a good number of ravens calling (apparently the collective noun for a group of ravens is a murder), and I was amazed at the diversity of their calls, they definitely sounded as if they were talking. Thinking afterwards I recalled an article on Countryfile that was about a raven roost on Anglesey, and a chap had been studying the raven calls and I think he identified a good 40.

I kept walking in the recent snow and ice that we had last week and took a camera with me and captured some stunning scenery. I don't think I have ever seen such a hard frost with ice crystals an inch long or more on branches and gates. It was interesting to see all the footprints in the snow and to find out what had been about overnight. A lovely set of hare prints went from the road through our garden and out into the yard. There were lots of deer tracks, more hare and, of course, pheasant prints out on the farm. Not many badger prints during the really cold snap, they sensibly stayed below ground, but since it has got warmer they have been more active and I have seen more fresh digging in the lane sets. One evening we had a badger on the patio looking into the kitchen, probably the same individual that I have disturbed before in the garden after dark. As the ground thawed new mole hills appeared.

The birds in the garden are tucking in well to the sunflower hearts and peanuts in particular. I have been feeding mealworms, dried ones that I soak in warm water for about 15 minutes, and shredded suet. I also started putting out fat balls when the weather turned colder. There have been up to 3 bramblings visiting and the other day a male siskin. The feeders and fat balls regularly attract blue, great and coal tits throughout the day, and often early morning or late evening a party of long-tailed tits. It can often take a time to attract the birds in to feed, but once they know where food is they will come back. At this time of the year it is important to provide the food on a regular basis to be certain they don't waste energy

'Now we're talking'

Your opportunity to influence the future of policing in Wiltshire. Wiltshire Police Authority (WPA) is seeking the public's views on the future of policing across the county with the publication of a short questionnaire on the authority's website. Wiltshire Police Authority's annual budget of £108 million must be reduced by £15 million over the next four years to meet government spending cuts. It is the police authority's responsibility to ensure the police continue to provide an effective and efficient service across the whole of the Force area. WPA Chairman Chris Hoare has said the WPA are committed to keeping officers on the streets and protecting the frontline, as far as possible, but they want people to give their views and what they value in their police service. Please visit the authority's website - www.wiltshire-pa.gov.uk - to read more about these plans and give your views via a short questionnaire. You have until 9th February to complete the questionnaire.

Wiltshire Moneyline

These are indeed difficult financial times for many families but there is a lifeline which is available and will indeed help many. The four Credit Unions in Wiltshire have worked together and can now offer loans of up to £500 at an interest rate of 2% per month (calculated only on the reducing balance of the loan) to borrowers who can demonstrate the ability to repay. These loans are called Moneyline loans.

What are Credit Unions? They are non-profit making co-operatives, regulated by the Government and are run in Wiltshire by trained volunteers. Local residents can join their Credit Union for life for £2 and would normally save for a minimum of three months before a loan would be considered. However Moneyline loans are available immediately – new members are also encouraged to save even small amounts into their Credit Union account while paying off their loan but are not compelled to do so. The application process is rigorous and takes about ten days to investigate the borrower's ability to repay.

The policy of Credit Unions is to help their members through a tough period and offer a genuine alternative to high cost lenders. £500 borrowed from a doorstep or internet lender and repaid evenly over a year will cost £410 additionally in interest. From Moneyline the interest would be £63, a saving of £347!

These Moneyline loans are offered by your Credit Union and initial investigations are done by Community First, a registered charity in Devizes. Applicants should in the first instance contact:

Community First on 01380 736387 or directly to their intended Credit Union

- North Wilts Credit Union 01249 248313
- West Wilts Credit Union 01225 709865
- South Wilts Credit Union 01722 421881
- Kennet Credit Union 01672 562666

All these Credit Unions have been encouraged and supported in offering Mon

Thank you to those who have generously given paper for printing the Parish News during 2010, this really helps to keep production costs down, and we would be very grateful for further donations in 2011. ### Longbridge Deverill and Crockerton Parish Council

The Forces March will be passing though our villages on 29th March and they are looking for groups of young people (min 4) to join them from Maiden Bradley to Bulford. The entrance fee is £25 per head, with further funds being raised through personal sponsorship. The Parish Council are happy to cover the fees for a team of four, so if you are a young person living in Hill Deverill, Longbridge Deverill or Crockerton and would like to make up a team, please contact me for more details on 840119 or log onto www.forcesmarch.org.uk

Please can I remind everyone that the grit in our local bins is for use on roads and pavements and not for private drives or pathways. Anyone found removing the grit will be reported to the police. The bins have been placed in some of the villages' most dangerous areas and accidents may occur if no grit is available. If you do find that the grit bin near you is empty, please let me know or ring Wiltshire Council direct on their Clarence number 0800 23 23 23.

Our next meeting is on Tuesday 4th January at Longbridge Deverill village hall at 7.30. All are welcome to attend.

News Year's Resolution - Support Fairtrade Who Needs Fairtrade?

Brazil is booming. Its cities are buzzing with people making the most of economic optimism – doing business, spending money and adapting their lifestyles to fit the fast-paced change. Look at countries like India, China and Mexico and you will find similarities. So why, you might ask, do these countries need Fairtrade? Brush off the brick dust and you will find another side to Brazil. Outside the cities, in rural communities there is little evidence of the new-found wealth making its way into the hands of those working on the land.

Fairtrade Labelling Organisations International (FLO), the umbrella organisation of Fairtrade, is responsible for defining the global reach of Fairtrade. The geographical scope is broadly based on a list published by the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD)'s Development Assistance Committee. It shows the countries which receive overseas development aid from the member countries of the committee – these include the US, Japan, France, the UK and other EU member states.

Within this broad reach, it is agricultural and commodity producers whom FLO standards are designed to benefit, specifically those producers who are marginalised by the complex supply chains and imbalances of power in conventional trade. In Mexico for example, coffee farmers live in remote mountainous areas where livelihoods are fragile and there is a lack of government investment in infrastructure. This is despite the expansion of coffee houses we have seen in almost every high street in the UK, because in real terms, the price of coffee, and therefore the income coffee farmers have to provide for their families, has fallen by more than two thirds in the last 40 years. And India, although rated by the World Bank as a middle-income country, has a yawning divide between the incomes of the crowds joining the newly prosperous urban middle classes and those scraping together a living in farming communities. It is still a country where almost 30 percent of the population lives in poverty and in every 1,000 under fives, 66 children will not see their sixth birthdays. Compare this to the UK, where the figure falls to just five.

So that means that when it comes to which countries Fairtrade works to benefit the poorest farmers and workers, the scope of Fairtrade encompasses almost all of Africa, Latin America, the Caribbean, Oceania and the poorest countries in Asia. Currently the geographical scope does not include any European countries on the OECD list.

But as we all know, things move fast in the global economy. FLO reviews the list of countries every few years to make sure it still fits the bill when it comes to securing the best deal for disadvantaged farmers and workers.

So make it your New Year Resolution to support Fairtrade and by doing so you will be supporting the poorest people in the world who work on the land to provide the commodities we all need.

Where have you been?

The top ten list for 2010

By popular request, this is a list of the places to eat that have been recommended, either by me or to me, in 2010.

Da Vinci Italian Restaurant, 68 Castle Street, Salisbury (01722 328402; www.davinciofsalisbury.co.uk)

A pleasant and reasonable place to eat in Salisbury.

The Woolpack, Sutton Veny (01985 840422)

Popular local eatery.

Archangel, 1 King Street, Frome (01373 456111; www.archangelfrome.com)

For those big occasions, perhaps. A stylish place to eat in central Frome.

The Weymouth Arms, 12 Elmwell Street, Warminster (01985 216995; www.weymoutharms.co.uk) A lovely and rather unexpected find in Warminster.

Beatons Tea Rooms and Bookshop, The Square, Tisbury (01747 871819; www.beatonstearooms.co.uk) Super food, great atmosphere breakfast, lunch or tea.

The Bell and Crown, Zeals (01747 840404)

This pub still remains a great favourite with a wide range of people.

The Forester, Lower Street, Donhead St Andrew, Wiltshire (01747 828038)

Lovely 14C pub in beautiful surroundings.

The Compasses at Lower Chicks Grove, Tisbury (01722 714318)

Another 14C inn. Chefs may change but this pub retains its reputation. Wiltshire Dining Pub of the year 2010.

The George, Norton St Philip, Nr Bath (01373 834224)

Yet another 14C pub with a good reputation. Choose off the Comfort Food bar menu but eat in the dining room. A fascinating place.

The Beckford Arms, Fonthill Gifford, Tisbury (01747 870385)

The latest I know is that this pub is due to re-open in spring/summer 2011.

Haggis - recipe for Burns Night Tuesday 25th January

This is an authentic recipe from Scotland, the ingredients and methods of cooking may be unfamiliar but the results will be enjoyable.

Ingredients

1 sheep's stomach or ox secum, cleaned and thoroughly, scalded, turned inside out and soaked overnight in cold salted water.
Heart and lungs of one lamb
450g/1lb beef or lamb trimmings, fat and lean
2 onions, finely chopped                      225g/8oz oatmeal
1 tbsp salt    1 tsp ground black pepper
1 tsp ground dried coriander                      1 tsp mace
1 tsp nutmeg    water, enough to cook the haggis

Stock from lungs and trimmings

Method

Wash the lungs and heart. Place in large pan of cold water with the meat trimmings and bring to the boil. Cook for about 2 hours.
When cooked, strain off the stock and set the stock aside.
Mince the lungs, heart and trimmings.
Put the minced mixture in a bowl and add the finely chopped onions, oatmeal and seasoning. Mix well and add enough stock to moisten the mixture. It should have a soft crumbly consistency.
Spoon the mixture into the sheep's stomach, so it is just over half full. Sew up the stomach with strong thread and prick a couple of times so it does not explode while cooking.
Put the haggis in a pan of boiling water (enough to cover it) and cook for 3 hours without a lid. Keep adding more water to keep it covered.
To serve, cut open the haggis and spoon out the filling. Serve with neeps (mashed swede or turnip) and tatties (mashed potatoes).

Cast on Club

Come and join us, bringing needles, wool and a pattern of something you would like to make. We look forward to seeing you. The group has received a much appreciated 'Thank you' from the premature baby unit at Salisbury District Hospital for the blankets and hats and other items we made for them.

Deverill Valley & Crockerton Women's Institute

Our next meeting will be on Monday 10th January at 7.30pm at Longbridge Deverill Village Hall when Sarah Buttenshaw will be speaking on 'Rural India - people and its wildlife'. ## Longbridge Deverill Village Hall

A packed house, with every seat taken, enjoyed a Christmas Musical Get Together at the hall. The entertainment ranged from traditional carols and to humorous Christmas tales and poems. It was particularly lovely to have the children of Crockerton School to sing to us and marvellous to see so many people from the parish and beyond supporting this annual event. Many thanks go to all who took part, to John Budgen for helping to coordinate and present the programme and to the ladies of the hall committee for supplying the most delicious refreshments.
