Dear All

The dawn of a New Year is with us, in which we hope for peace in the world, as well as good health for ourselves and continuation of the economic recovery. However, before looking too far into the future, let us not forget this Christmas tide and remember the twelve days up to Christ's epiphany. The commercialisation of this festive season makes it too easy to forget after about the fourth day the true reason for the majority enjoying themselves, and by the time we should be singing about the eight maids a milking, we are too interested in celebrating hogmanay and the on-set of another year. Let us not forget those far less fortunate than ourselves who have spent Christmas alone, or in a hostel, on the streets or, even worse, in a war zone. Fate has decreed that some people live in such circumstances frequently through no fault of their own. Let us give thanks to those whom we may know who have given their time voluntarily to assist such unfortunate people.

Some members of the PCC under Robert Shuler's chairmanship have been working hard to produce a parish profile which we hope will attract the right candidates to replace Rev Norma Payne later this year. Fortunately, discussions have gone well so far with little dissention amongst the ranks, so that in the near future an attractive document illustrating the advantages of possibly providing our pastoral and spiritual care over the next few years will be available for all potential candidates to read and consider. Meanwhile, we continue to welcome a variety of retired members of the clergy who live in the surrounding area, and of course Di Britten, all of whom contribute to our needs.

The recent not totally unexpected demise of Nelson Mandela is a strong reminder of how one man with an enormously powerful message can influence a nation so radically, and also prick the consciences of many other of the world's leaders. Let us hope that Mandela's legacy is allowed to prosper and not be affected by political expediency.

Finally, may I on behalf of Maggi and myself thank everybody who has offered words of support and advice during the oil spillage under Bridge House. We have not been particularly keen supporters of New Year celebrations in the past but, after what can only be described as an 'Annus Horribilis', we look forward to 2014 with renewed vigour.

A Very Happy New Year to all from the Parochial Church Council.

Horningsham Youth Club

We have made it through the first 3 months of the re-launched Youth Club and are looking forward to continuing to grow in strength and numbers in 2014. The Youth Club is now running independently of Warminster Youth Service. Ken Windess remains the Chairman, Caroline Dykes is Treasurer with a small team of volunteers who ensure we can open. We do need more volunteers, ideally the club needs 4 adults present when operating. A pool of 8-10 volunteers would mean no need for over-commitment. Could you volunteer 2 hours, once every 6 weeks? Please get in touch.

At the session on 6th December we were delighted to learn that members are passionate about the club and keen to keep it going as a vital part of village life. We got great feedback about what members want - dance club, a play, a pyjama/onesie movie night, chips, parachute games, a sports day, and a salon day. Members are keen to have a stall at the Village Fayre to fund-raise. We confirm that the parachute has been ordered and we will do all the other stuff in 2014! From the 8th January the club will run on Wednesday evenings from 6.30 pm - 8.30 pm every 2 weeks - see below for dates. We will post dates in the Horningsham News and on Horningsham News Facebook page: sign up if you have not already.

Nature Notes

The weather has been kind to us so far; I can remember only one very hard frost about a month ago. I even saw a big bumblebee feeding on the bright yellow winter jasmine flowers in the full sun, just outside the lounge window the other day. In a little over a week we will get to the shortest day and not long afterwards nature will wake up to the increasing daylight. Of course, if the weather gets colder then things will be put on hold again. I have already been aware of some birds singing early morning and late evening; song thrush, mistle thrush, and the robin whose song has started to change its tune to a happier refrain. When we went to Stourhead last week-end the nuthatches were very vocal. I had previously heard one calling in the village. Hearing the birds singing more prompted me to clean out our bird boxes in readiness for use next year. We had 4 boxes used this year and, judging by the contents and from memory, I think the occupants were coal-tit, great-tit, blue-tit (the 3 hole nest boxes) and probably robin (open-fronted nest box). Another open-fronted nest box and a house sparrow terrace nest box were not used. Now is a good time to put up new boxes and replace those that are getting too old, to provide a safe and dry place to nest. We have one box that will need replacing as the lid is breaking up. This morning Major Nigel Lewis came with two helpers to put up a kestrel box on an ash tree in the hedge of our field in the village. He has warned us that tawny owls may take the box over and as I often hear them calling at night I reckon he will be right. I have seen a kestrel around here though, so fingers crossed they will find the box before the tawnies do.

I have added sunflower seeds to the bird feeding station and that has attracted in lots of finches, predominantly goldfinches and greenfinches. The greenfinches being the bigger bird hog the feeders and the goldfinches wait patiently to have a go. This afternoon all the birds suddenly flew off as a male great spotted woodpecker came to feed on the peanuts. Interestingly, the goldfinch that had been previously waiting for the greenfinches to finish feeding saw this as an opportunity, and quickly flew back to the sunflower hearts while the greenfinches were away. I fully expected the greenfinches to come back and push the goldfinch away or for the goldfinch to lose its nerve in the face of the much bigger woodpecker feeding on the peanuts inches away, but no, it carried on eating!

When we drove in to town three weeks ago passing Longbridge church I looked up and saw what I thought was a buzzard, but something made me take a second look. It had longer thinner wings and a forked tail; a red kite. Several people I have spoken to since have also seen it so when you see a buzzard just check to make sure it is not a kite! Finally the last weekend in January (25th/26th) is the RSPB Big Garden Bird Watch when we are asked to record the species and numbers of birds coming in to our gardens. Look at their website rspb.org.uk

Your Parish News - Donations - 12 -

As usual in January we are asking for an annual donation of at least £5 per household. Your contributions are vital to ensure the production of the Parish News which keeps our community informed of information, news and events locally and outside our area. Please use the enclosed pale blue envelope for your donation, if you are a UK tax payer please complete the relevant section to enable reclamation of tax. Some financial support is also received from the PCC and Parish councils. Thank you.

The envelopes can either be: put into the collection at Church or given to a Church Warden; given to David Stratton, PCC Treasurer, Manor Farm, Kingston Deverill; put into the collecting box at Longbridge Garage; given or sent to Judy Munro, Whitepits Lodge, Kingston Deverill, BA12 7HD

I say a very special thank you to everyone who helps to produce, deliver and contribute to the Parish News throughout the year.

An Old Agriculturist's Ramblings by Ian Woodcock - Part 5

We moved to Shute Farm on 21st June 1956 and borrowed my father-in law's 3 ton Bedford lorry, collecting it from Chisledon to move our few scraps of furniture which did not take long and settled in. By then we had a 10 month old daughter. I next took the lorry to my brother-in-law's farm at Horningsham, loaded it with three tons of barley in sacks and returned it to Chisledon.

A change in life style for me to run the 2 farms Shute and Ryehill together for the next 3 months before we split them into a 40 cow dairy and arable at Shute; arable, pigs, sheep, beef cattle at Ryehill. The 2 farms acreage came to just under 700 acres, a staff of 4 on each farm, still with 3 ricks of barley to be threshed. Ryehill did own a threshing machine and straw trusser so we got stuck in, we did not want to be dealing with this dusty job in the height of summer.

I was now faced with one of my least favourite tasks, that of hay making. A large acreage had been shut up for hay and although it was now almost the end of June we had to hurry with it; luckily the weather was reasonably good and we managed to cope. I had no intention of sweeping it into loose ricks as a baler was available. There were already 4 ricks of loose hay at Ryehill and 2 at Shute. These were dealt with during the following winter using the pick-up baler. One man with a hay knife cut a wide swath across the rick, another pronged it to the ground, another fed it into the baler another pitched the bales on a trailer, another loaded the trailer. If all trailers were filled he made a stack for collection later, all fairly time consuming and labour intensive.

The next task was harvest, approximately 200 acres to be dealt with. I was not going to cut this with a binder into sheaves, making more ricks, so a contractor came and combined it into sacks. If it needed drying a neighbour had a small sack dryer we made use of, very labour intensive, straw baled up and sold locally or stored in barns.

I had to decide how the 2 businesses were to be split, what machinery to keep, what to dispose of. Mr Algar and I decided to have a farm sale of the surplus, the

Brixton Deverill Church - New Organ

At the Eucharist service on Sunday 15th December Brixton Deverill church was filled with the sound of the 'new' organ, replacing a most inferior and unloved electric instrument. The organ was purchased from the United Reform Chapel in Broadchalke, near Salisbury, following the change of use of the chapel to become a community centre. It was disassembled on site and transported by car and horsebox to John Budgen's workshop to prepare it for a new life.

The new organ was built in 1878 by Bishop and Son of London for the church of St Michael, Lewes, Sussex, but it is not known if it had another home before it arrived in Broadchalke. It is a single manual instrument with pedals, having seven stops and is housed in a pitch pine case. A noteworthy detail is the use of a superior metal alloy in the manufacture of the pipes. It is a 50/50 mix of tin and lead, giving a pleasing appearance known as 'spotted metal', visible on the front pipes.

John Budgen joined Bishop & Son to become a professional organ builder, staying with them for 37 years before starting his own business. He has spent many hours, with utmost care, diligence and devotion in repairing, cleaning and restoring the organ, assisted by Janet, finally reassembling it at Brixton Deverill, where it will enhance worship for years to come. It is hoped there will be a recital in the New Year.

The cost of the project has been supported by a generous donation from Pam Joy, in memory of her son Jeremy, who lies buried in the churchyard at Brixton Deverill, and also her granddaughter Clara, who is laid to rest at Eastbourne.

Sir James Thynne's Almshouse - Longbridge Deverill

A volunteer is required to take over from the present Steward of Sir James Thynne's Almshouse, Longbridge Deverill. Sue Jackson, who currently undertakes this task, is planning to retire as the Steward, but retain her role as Treasurer. The Steward's tasks are:

- Dealing with financial matters concerning the Almshouse
- Residential Administration
- House matters
- Arranging repairs and maintenance

There are currently four residents living in the Almshouse. This is not an onerous task, but the successful applicant will carry out an important role in support of this charitable organisation. The Chairman of the Trustees is Lady Silvy McQuiston. For further details please contact Sue Jackson on 840322. (Charity No 203094)

Longbridge Deverill Village Hall Christmas Market

Thank you to everyone who contributed cakes, their time and effort to the Village Hall Christmas Market on 30th November. We raised £74.60 which was a good sum, given the stiff competition from 2 larger events held at the same time elsewhere! £25 was raised by the cake stall and £29.60 from the 'coffee shop'. All money raised has been donated to the Village Hall double glazing fund.

Broadband in the Upper Deverills Funding application

Thank you again to all who responded to the Survey distributed to residents of Kingston and Monkton Deverill at the beginning of November. With a lot of hard work (and especially thanks to some residents who helped chase up return of surveys) we have so far achieved a response from 71% of households. Our initial analysis also shows that we would have at least a 60% take up of Superfast Broadband using a fixed line connection which we hope is sufficient to demonstrate that there would be sufficient demand and most importantly that SB would bring significant business/economic benefits to the two villages.

I have mentioned in previous reports that we have to provide some private funding to complement the EU grant. I am delighted to say that Wessex Water have very generously pledged £25,000 towards our full application as a community contribution in relation to the water pipeline and pumping station work being carried out in Monkton Deverill. This is tremendously helpful in pressing our application. Ideally we need to raise some further private funds and this is currently being pursued.

In mid-December we were advised by Defra that the rate of grant for community led projects submitted for EU funding could not exceed 50%. Our approved Expression of Interest was for 75%. However because we are proposing piggy backing on Wiltshire Council's contract with BT it seems that a higher level of grant may still be available. Having said that we have been advised that if the available funds are over-subscribed, value for money (in terms of level of requested intervention rate, and the number of premises connected for the level of grant requested) will be key considerations.

The key information that we are still awaiting is an update of BT's estimated costs. On the ground survey work was taking place in mid-December and this will provide this information and be a key indicator as to whether we can meet Defra's viability and value for money tests.

Once we have this information Wiltshire Council and ourselves will be in a position to submit our full application for grant. We still seem to have hurdles to jump and I'm sure that I will have a further update next month!

Upper Deverills Parish Plan

Work on the Parish Plan continues and we have now drafted the Action Plan. This will need to be discussed with various organisations, groups and committees. Estimates of production costs will soon be received and we will then be in a position to finalise a source of funds for printing costs. We expect to be able to distribute a colour booklet style A4 size copy of the Parish Plan to all households in the Upper Deverills by the end of March 2014. If you have any further and final issues to contribute, please contact the Working Group. For: Kingston - Michael Mounde

Public Transport – Use it or Lose it

Ask yourself the question – If I had no personal transport or was unable to drive how would I get to Warminster for shopping or for further onward travel? Would I cycle, hitch a lift, take a taxi, ride a horse or just walk. No need for any of that - take the bus! The 57 Service provided by Frome Minibuses under contract to Wiltshire Council runs from Warminster to the Deverills 4 times a day. Unfortunately it is rarely used by the local community and most of the time runs empty. For those of you with a bus pass, the service is free and although there are scheduled stops on the way the driver will drop and pick you up anywhere on the route. I always use the bus when travelling to and from London by train, it is so convenient to be dropped right outside the house in Brixton Deverill. We have good public transport in this area and if we do not use it we will lose it. Instead of driving to the Farmer’s Market in Warminster on Friday why not take the bus? The schedule is conveniently timed for shopping and coffee, it’s a relaxing way to travel and a good way of meeting new people. For Senior Citizens free bus passes go to www.wiltshire.gov.uk. Michael and Jacqui Burden, this summer left their 2 cars in Devon and spent their summer holiday travelling the length of Britain for free. Over 7 days they meandered 500 miles on their free bus passes to Carlisle – 28 buses and 15 different bus companies.

On the subject of public transport, you can travel from Warminster Station to London, Southampton, Bath, Bristol, Cardiff, Malvern etc. at a very reasonable cost, providing you have a railcard. Book at least one day in advance either at the station or online via a web site such as www.nationalrail.co.uk A typical off peak /railcard return fare to Bath is £6.65 to Waterloo £24.10 booked in advance. (2013 prices).

Volunteering

A new volunteer recruitment website has been launched, enabling local people considering volunteering in Wiltshire to find out more about what they can do. The website www.volunteercentrewiltshire.org.uk highlights the types of volunteering, local volunteer stories and ways to get involved. The website is in direct response to the challenges which charities face in finding volunteers across the county. It allows free volunteering opportunity advertising for all not-for-profit organisations, charities, community groups and social enterprises. Any role can be added to Volunteer Centre Wiltshire’s database, the website is free to use by anyone. The idea behind the website comes from a desire to give volunteers a clear and simple means of accessing information about volunteering, and a central place for community groups to post their vacant opportunities. Volunteer Centre Wiltshire is part of local charity Develop Enhancing Community Support who regularly support volunteers to find volunteering opportunities in their local communities.

Volunteer Centre Wiltshire supported Vicky Stretton to find a volunteering opportunity. Having left education and been at home looking after her children for a few years, Vicky recently finished her Book Keeping course at college and wanted to do something to put it into practice, before her youngest daughter started school, to improve her chances of getting a job. The Job Centre suggested she contacted Volunteer Centre Wiltshire to find out about all the volunteering opportunities in Wiltshire. The opportunity to volunteer at Wiltshire Credit Union seemed the perfect choice for her as it was somewhere she could use her qualifications and she liked the idea of being involved with a ‘not for profit’ organisation. Meeting the Office Manager she felt she was someone she could learn from and there would be some good projects to be involved with and develop her skills. Vicky started as a cashier to see the start of the process and learn about the services the credit union provides. She moved into the back office where she learnt office procedures. Her duties included data input, filing, enquiries, one-off reports and general administration.

Vicky had left school with no GCSEs and the only qualifications she had were Maths, Adult Numeracy 1 and 2 and Book Keeping Levels 1 and 2. Through volunteering she has been given the chance to improve her skill base in literacy and IT skills, including Microsoft Word, Excel and emailing. A year after she started at the Credit Union they needed an Office Manager’s assistant and she applied for the role. The job was advertised at the Job Centre and received 40 applications, so she was thrilled to get the job. She is sure the confidence and skills gained from her volunteer role there played a huge part in securing the job.

Voluntary and community groups can register with the Volunteer Centre, it is free to join and easy to get volunteering opportunities promoted in very little time. During the last year the Volunteer Centre dealt with over 2,300 volunteer enquiries with over 3,200 opportunities being passed on to them. If you want to

Recipe of the month - One Pot Chicken with Rice and Peas

Sponsored by Maiden Bradley Community Shop

After the excesses of the festive season, not to mention the mountains of washing up because we used every pot and dish available, it would be nice to prepare something simple but tasty done in one pot.

Ingredients:

- | | |
|------------------------------|-----------------------------|
| 2 shallots, diced | 250ml chicken stock |
| 100g risotto rice | 100g frozen peas |
| 200g cooked chicken shredded | grated zest of 1/2 lemon |
| freshly ground black pepper | small handful chopped basil |
| lemon wedges | cherry tomatoes on the vine |

Method:

Cook the shallots in a little of the stock in a heavy based saucepan over a low heat until soft and golden for about 5 minutes. Add the risotto rice, stir for about 1 minute. Pour in the rest of the stock, then cover the pan and bring to a gentle simmer. Cook for approx 25 minutes, or until the rice is cooked and just tender.

Stir in the frozen peas, about 3/4 of the chicken and half the lemon zest. Season with freshly ground black pepper and continue cooking gently for 5 minutes.

To serve, divide the rice mixture between 2 plates and top with the remaining chicken and lemon zest. Sprinkle chopped basil over each portion and serve with a wedge of lemon and some raw, grilled or roasted cherry tomatoes.

All ingredients available or can be ordered from Maiden Bradley Village shop.
