The Rector writes:

Last year friends, with whom I shared my holiday, introduced me to the quiz programme 'Pointless'. Somewhat to my surprise, I have found it quite addictive. I am amazed at the facts people know and can lift from the recesses of their minds, particularly when the subject is something about which I know nothing. We get a good many opportunities to test out knowledge if we follow any of the wide range of radio or television quizzes. How pleased we feel when we know the answers!

The popularity of pub quizzes and quiz events to raise funds is obvious too. We either like or loathe them but does this trend reveal something of our naturally competitive nature I wonder? When we call out an incorrect answer at the television, it's of no consequence. If we are part of a quiz team, making an error lets our team mates down. We may feel awkward but it's all part of the fun of the occasion and we can laugh at our mistakes.

However, none of us like to be wrong, whether in something inconsequential like a quiz, or something more significant. We have those 'internal conversations' trying to make sense of what has occurred and to justify or rationalise our decision or action. When we know we are in the wrong, perhaps the most crucial question is what we do about it. Saying sorry, asking forgiveness isn't always easy, and even when that happens, society and individuals are not always ready to forgive. We have seen this in political and financial matters in recent years. Perhaps society needs evidence of the biblical understanding of a real change of heart and direction to accompany an apology. Then our modern desire to scapegoat and apportion blame may be tempered by allowing a new start and the putting right of wrongs.

In the meantime, happy quizzing if that's your forte!

Nature Notes

We seem to have returned to winter! The Bank Holiday weekend lulled us into thinking that summer had begun. I can't remember when we last had a very good Bank Holiday Monday. There are signs that summer is, hopefully, just around the corner. We had a swallow return to the stables here on the 11th April; it was resting on the nest giving me the impression that it was pretty exhausted by its journey. It has since been joined by at least one more. When in town last Thursday, 9th May, there were a couple of swifts flying high above the buildings. Last Sunday, 12th May, we had house martins flying around and one landed on the wall of our house near to the house martin box we put up last year which was successfully used. Brian Rayner, who lives in the village, kindly installed the house martin box and this year he has installed a swift box that we purchased after being encouraged to do so by the swift talk we attended in April. We have bought a CD of swift calls that when played in the early morning and evening should help advertise there is a vacant home here. I have yet to see a swift in the village this year, but I remember seeing a good number feeding over the river during the summer last year. So I've got my fingers crossed, I am told it can take many years before attracting them.

Yesterday and today the weather has been particularly unsettled with gusty winds, which are cold for the time of year, and heavy showers. The countryside is looking lovely, the lush bright green of the new growth is vivid and contrasts beautifully with the gorgeous pink of the flowering cherry trees, standing out against the slate grey of the sky. I noticed the mistle thrush has been singing well in this weather, I should not have been surprised; its other name is storm cock.

Sadly the frog spawn has succumbed to the very cold weather but we do have tadpoles - toad ones! Around the edge of the pond I had noticed what I thought was pondweed but looking closer I realized it was the remains of toad spawn. Toads lay eggs in ribbons deep in the pond. We had lots of toad tadpoles to begin with, the pond margins were black with them, but they have thinned out now.

I had spotted that we had birds nesting in several places in the garden (blue tit, great tit, linnet), but unfortunately their activities have ceased, due to the cold weather. I hope they had not laid eggs, this cold and wet weather would soon chill eggs and any chicks in the nest. Let's hope that summer will arrive and most importantly stay with us very soon.

Recipe of the month - Beef Layer Pie with Yoghurt Topping

Sponsored by Maiden Bradley Community Shop

Pre-heat the oven to 190C/375F/mark 5

- | | |
|------------------------------------|----------------------------------|
| 4 oz onions, chopped | Salt and pepper, Paprika |
| 1 oz unsalted butter | 1lb potatoes (cooked and sliced) |
| ½lb cold roast beef (minced) | ½lb tomatoes (skinned & sliced) |
| ¼ level teaspoon dried mixed herbs | 1 egg |
| 2 level tablespoons tomato puree | 1oz flour |
| 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce | 5 fl oz natural yoghurt |

Cook the onion gently in the butter. Add the cooked minced meat, mixed herbs, tomato puree and Worcestershire sauce; season well to taste. Starting with the potatoes, arrange layers of potato, then the meat mixture, then the tomatoes into a 2 pint casserole, finishing with a layer of potatoes. Cover casserole and bake in oven for 30 minutes. Beat the egg and blend in the flour and yoghurt; season to taste and spoon over the pie. Return pie to the oven, lid off, and cook for a further 30 minutes. Dust top with paprika before serving. This is a very versatile dish. You could use lamb or chicken to good effect.

Upper Deverills Parish Plan

Last month we advised you of some additional consultation events we had planned. On the 29th April, over 20 people met at the Village Hall to enjoy tea, homemade cake and a chat. Emma Curtis our local Good Neighbour Coordinator and Jason Greenland Police Community Support Officer were also on hand to promote their services and answer questions. The Upper Deverills Parish Plan Working Group asked villagers for feedback on 'What makes the Upper Deverills a good place to live?' and 'What could be done to improve life for older people living here?' Several people said they appreciated the natural beauty and tranquillity of the area but there were also concerns about increasing traffic and poor public transport links. Judging by the sociable crowd and positive comments made on the day, a tea party may well become a regular event! We hope that the two further events we mentioned last month will be run during June. They are discussions about children (18-) in our villages, and those involved or associated (past or present) with our local/rural economy.

Photo Competition

We need photos to illustrate our Plan. Please get the cameras out now! We are running a competition to find the best photo in each of the following themes: Typical village scenes, Villages and surroundings through the seasons, Community activities and events, The River, Farming and Farmland, Nature and biodiversity in our valley. This will be judged at the Village Fete on Saturday 7th September – prizes for winners and acknowledgement in print when your photo is included. We are seeking digital entries at no greater than 300 dpi. To enter, you must be a resident of the Upper Deverills, have taken the photo yourself and not be a professional photographer. Further details will be published later – get snapping!!

Desk Top Publishing

If you are familiar with DTP and could help the Working Group format the report please make contact, your help would be appreciated.

PUBLIC MEETING on Saturday 20th July at 11.00 am in the Village Hall. The draft Parish Plan will have been circulated to all households before this. The meeting will be a chance for you to have your say on the draft plan.

If you have any queries, have comments to make or wish to help with producing the Parish Plan, please contact a member of the Working Group:

Volunteers Week 2013

Help Us Celebrate Volunteering in Wiltshire

Volunteers' Week is an annual campaign which takes place from 1st - 7th June and celebrates the fantastic contribution millions of volunteers make across the UK. This year's Volunteers' Week focuses on saying 'Thank You' to the millions of volunteers who regularly contribute to society, and to recognise the way that organisations celebrate the work of volunteers in the UK.

As part of Volunteer's Week 2013 Volunteer Centre Wiltshire has joined up with a selection of Wiltshire and Swindon based charities to create Vol-Fest! a celebration of volunteering and the environment. Come along to Barbury Castle, near Swindon, on Saturday 1st June to join in the fun. Participate in enjoyable activities in the morning and further fun and entertainment in the afternoon. You can: help build tree sparrow 'villages'; have an introduction to bird surveying; help control invasive grassland species; have an introduction to butterfly surveying; take part in restoring a dew pond; install way markers or have a bush craft demonstration. After the volunteering sessions volunteers will be able to enjoy a 'thank you' lunch and entertainment such as music, performers, arts, crafts, local interests and stalls. Vol-Fest is a subsidised event so there is no cost to members of the public. Registration is essential, to find out about any of the workshops and to register to take part call 0845 521 6224 or visit www.developecs.org.uk/volfest and register your details.

If you can't make it on 1st June but would like to find out about volunteering opportunities in your area please get in touch, Volunteer Centre Wiltshire has details of hundreds of volunteering roles, you can talk to our Volunteering Adviser on 0845 521 6224 or visit our website: www.volunteercentrewiltshire.org.uk. If you would like to volunteer but feel as though you may need extra support then ask about the Mentor Supported Volunteering Project to see if you are eligible.

Longbridge & Crockerton Parish Council

On a lovely sunny Sunday morning, 13 people turned up for the spring litter pick. They cleared the rubbish from the pavements and verges of the A350 from the George Inn to the Crockerton roundabout. In addition a smaller party cleared Clay Street. Apart from the usual cans and crisp packets, many things were found from fluorescent light tubes to dead buzzards. The bags of rubbish were collected by a Wiltshire Council truck which was just big enough to take it all away in one load! Thanks are extended to all who turned out and took a pride in their parish.

It is all change on the council, five councillors have retired and five new councillors were elected. We said goodbye to Karen Manfield, Bill Hurd, Peter Withey, Elaine Pidgeon, Thomas Minter, and welcome new councillors, Graham Baxter, Roy Dickson, Kevin Gray, Caroline Sawyer, Nigel Spreadbury-Clews.

The next meeting will be on Monday 3rd June at 7.30 pm in Longbridge Deverill Village Hall. The public are welcome to attend.

Graham Connellan - Clerk

Our meeting this month will be on Monday 10th June at 7.30 pm in Longbridge Deverill Village Hall when we will be having general activities and a report on the NFWI Annual General Meeting. There will be tea, biscuits and a raffle. We visited Frome Theatre in May for a performance of 'The Sound of Music' which was thoroughly enjoyed by all. We also held our Wessex Group Meeting at Sutton Veny. If you would like to know more about the WI in the Deverill Valley please contact Julie Wallder on 213142. You will be very welcome to join our Meeting.

the WI Great Food Debate

The National Federation of WIs is trying to stimulate public debate on the important issue of food security and examine solutions. Globally the population is estimated to reach 9 billion by 2050 and demand for food to increase by 70% in the same period. What are the solutions? Should we be looking at GM crops? What about intensive farming? What about the role of government, consumers and retailers? Should we be cutting consumption and tackling climate change?

If you are interested in these issues come to: WILTSHIRE'S DEBATE on Tuesday 23rd July 7.00 – 9.00 pm, Nursted Centre, Nursted Road, Devizes SN10 3AF, entrance £3.50 - light refreshments on arrival. There will be a panel of speakers and an opportunity to have your say. The panel includes: Helen Browning OBE (CEO The Soil Association) and organic farmer; David Ball, Farms Director, Kemble Farm, Gloucestershire; representation from J Sainsbury plc. For all enquiries please contact Jan Penn 01249 716298 or email: janvpenn@hotmail.com
